PROPOSED SCHEME FOR THE APPLICATION OF THE TEACHERS' SALARIES GRANT.

(1) The Teachers' Salaries Grant shall be distributable in each school year amongst the managers of intermediate schools to whom result fees are payable in that year and shall be distributed by the Board amongst those managers rateably in proportion to the amounts of result fees payable to them respectively.

(2) The aforesaid method of distributing the grant will be varied if at any time it is found—

- (a) that in the case of the schools under Roman Catholic management participating in the distribution, the total number of lay registered teachers employed in those schools as whole-time teachers in accordance with the conditions of this scheme is less than one-fortieth of the total number of intermediate pupils attending those schools; or
- (b) that in the case of the schools not under Roman Catholic management participating in the distribution, the total number of lay registered teachers employed in those schools as whole-time teachers in accordance with the conditions of this scheme is less than one-fortieth of the total number of intermediate pupils attending those schools.

(3) A lay registered teacher who is employed as a whole-time teacher shall not be deemed to be employed in accordance with the conditions of this scheme unless under his contract of employment he is entitled to not less than three months' notice of dismissal if dismissed otherwise than for grave misconduct, and to a salary not less than the minimum salary specified in the Schedule to this scheme.

(4) Until the expiration of one year after the establishment of the register of intermediate school teachers under the Act, any person who—

- (a) is employed as a whole-time teacher in an intermediate school in Ireland; and
- (b) has been employed as a whole-time teacher in any intermediate school for not less than three years; and
- (c) is twenty-one years of age or upwards, shall be deemed to be a registered teacher within the meaning of this scheme, and the provisions of this scheme shall apply to him in like manner as if he were a registered teacher.
